Kakunodate Bukeyashiki Dori Kakunodate was a castle town that flourished as the seat of the Akita feudal clan. Still in the present day, Bukeyashiki (samura residences), with the deep groves of trees and dignified residence style of Bukevashiki, retain the reminiscence of the akunodate feudal era. These residences are designated as Historically Significant Traditional Buildings Preservation Area. ☎0187-54-2700

A Town of Elegance Woven by the Four Seasons

Colored by its history and culture, Kakunodate deeply holds the remnants of an older age. Giant and ancient trees decorate the town, bringing out the charm of each season. Although Kakunodate is famous for its cherry blossoms, the contrast between the red autumn leaves and the black wall is also gorgeous; one can feel the beauty nurtured by history.
