

A row of nine cylindrical boxes, likely made of wood or metal, arranged in a slightly overlapping line. The boxes feature various decorative finishes: some are dark brown with horizontal gold leaf bands, others have intricate carvings or inlays, and one has a prominent gold leaf background with dark floral patterns. The boxes are set against a light, textured background.

A decorative illustration of pink cherry blossoms and branches, rendered in a soft, painterly style. The blossoms are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The branches are dark brown and gnarled, extending across the frame. The background is a light, warm cream color.
